

American Society of Botanical Artists
22nd Annual Meeting and Conference
Pittsburgh 2016

What is “Bugging” You?

Heidi Snyder

Saturday, October 15, 2016
1:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Wyndham - Schenley VI

You want to include bugs in your botanical piece, but don't quite know how to go about it. Explore considerations such as overall objective, reference materials and composition as they inform your final piece. Implement these considerations in class with practice sketches.

Supply List

Bring paper (sketchpad) and pencils, markers etc. (something to sketch with.)

Bio

Heidi is a colored pencil artist with memberships in ASBA, RMSBA, GNSI, and a signature membership in CPSA. Attention to detail, awareness and conservation are intertwined for her. She participated in RARE, illustrated endangered species in Utah, and co-authored a book Wild in the City.